

Valuation Surveyor
Shrewsbury
£competitive

A leading firm of chartered surveyors, chartered town planners, property and business consultants.

With a network of offices and a strong reputation both locally and regionally for providing high quality professional advice. The organisation is looking for an experienced general practice chartered surveyor to join their Shrewsbury office to undertake valuations on a broad range of commercial and residential assets.

The role will be varied and will be responsible for the preparation of commercial and residential valuations undertaken on behalf of several major clearing banks and private clients including pension funds. Advising a significant portfolio of national charities in connection with the disposal and valuation of all types of property. Assisting in the expansion and development of the office and our valuation team.

The successful applicant will be FRICS/MRICS qualified and be a Registered Valuer with a track record of provision of Red Book compliant valuations.

In return, you will receive a competitive salary plus profit share, healthcare, additional holidays and a significant amount of development and training. In addition, you will have a clear progression route to move your career forward to the next stage.
