

Senior Town Planner
Bedford
£competitive + Excellent Benefits

We are excited to be working with a national consulting group in such a fantastic growth period for them! Having started their journey as a planning and development consultancy, the practice has gone from strength to strength; now consisting of Town Planning, Architecture/Master Planning and Urban Design through to Transport Design teams across the UK.

Due to continued expansion, there is now an exciting opportunity for a Senior Planner to join the team. With no 'glass ceiling' the practice offers excellent opportunities for advancing your career including mentoring programmes and tailored training for individuals. Not only will your career benefit from working in partnership senior planning professionals, but there is also full support and sponsorship towards APC.

As a Senior Planner, you will have exposure to a variety of projects of varying sizes across both Public and Private sector clients. Your role will be busy and varied and involve the provision of offering planning advise, managing associated external consultants and the preparation and submission of planning applications, appeals and local plan representations.

To be considered for this position, you will have a good grounding in development management led work and have a strong understanding of local and national planning policy. The ideal candidate must possess strong English (both verbally and in writing) and be fully competent in report and letter writing (in line with the English planning system). Additionally, you will have proven experience with software packages including GIS and mapping.

Membership of RTPI is highly sought after (although not essential, it will go a long way in supporting your application).

In return, you will work for a market leading organisation, offering a highly competitive salary, flexibility and excellent an excellent benefits package. You will be working with some of the best in the industry and as such, regular mentoring and tailored training plans will be available to develop your career.

All applications will remain completely confidential between yourself and Donna Banks at JRR. You will not be added to any mailing lists and rest assured your details will NOT be passed on to anyone without your prior authorisation. If you are interested in this or any other Town Planning opportunity, please give Donna a call on 0121 582 0877 or apply with your CV to this advert.
