

Residential Sales Lister
Hereford
£24,000 - £32,000 + Package

We are working with a leading Herefordshire based Residential Sales & Lettings agents with a focus on residential properties in predominantly rural settings.

The multi-discipline business who operate their own auction houses, agricultural sales, valuations and rural professional services are now looking for a professional and astute Residential Sales Lister to join their busy Hereford office, with a view to becoming an associate of the business.

You will focus predominantly on properties with a value of between £300,000 & £750,000, the role will include – Using your commercial knowledge to optimise every opportunity to secure valuation and obtain instructions, you will qualify sellers and prospective buyers based on their needs, the businesses internal policies and in accordance with information required for legal documentation, you will think commercially, but never lose focus on the customer first approach inherent in the business, you will identify and generate new sales opportunities with a go-getter attitude.

The ideal candidate will have at least 4-5 years' experience within residential sales and be able to list properties effectively, in a professional manner, with a demonstrable track record of exceeding targets, you will be personable, professional and ambitious with a warm approachable nature.

In return you will achieve an attractive annual salary + package and a clear, defined route to associate level within a forward thinking, professional business who pride themselves on their outstanding reputation.

For more information, please contact us:

01905 691 040

James.willis@joshuarobert.co.uk