

Urban Designer/ Masterplanner
Bedford/ London
£highly competitive + benefits

Joshua Robert Recruitment is delighted to be working with a national consulting group. Having started their journey as a planning and development consultancy, the practice has consistently grown and now consists of Town Planning, Architecture/Master Planning and Urban Design through to Transport Design teams across the UK.

Due to continued expansion, there is now an exciting opportunity for a talented Urban Designer to join their vibrant and friendly team in either Bedford or London. Not only will you be developing your skills through working on a wide range of projects, but there will be training and support along the way for you to grow and truly flourish in the role.

The role will involve working closely with the Studio Director; assisting with developing master plans, urban planning concepts and strategies, feasibility studies, design and access statement and design codes. In addition, you will be producing drawings and presentations in 2D and 3D whilst also liaising with clients and project teams throughout the project(s).

To be considered for this position, you will have proven post qualification experience and will have worked on residential and mixed used schemes. You will have a good understanding of planning requirements and a high level of visual and verbal skill including freehand and colour rendering skills.

Experience producing 1/500 scaled free hand sketch residential layouts would be a distinct advantage.

Passionate about seeking innovative, sustainable and creative design solutions, the successful applicant will also be fully proficient in Adobe Illustrator, InDesign, Photoshop, AutoCAD and SketchUP (with Revit being advantageous).

In return, you will receive a competitive salary, pension scheme, contributions towards professional subscriptions and a fantastic working environment. There is a clear route for progression and lots of support for you to take your career to the next level.

All applications will remain completely confidential between yourself and Donna Banks at JRR. You will not be added to any mailing lists and rest assured your details will NOT be passed on to anyone without your prior authorisation. If you are interested in this or any other Urban Design opportunity, please give Donna a call on 0121 582 0877 or apply with your CV/Portfolio to this advert.
