

Acquisitions Manager - (Property)
Birmingham
£65,000 - £75,000 + Car + Bonus

A prominent UK retailer with a vast network of outlets and an office base in the Midlands are seeking an Acquisitions Manager to help drive the next phase of their strategic growth. The organisation is regarded as a top employer and have an ambitious development programme over the next 5 years.

The successful candidate will be focused on delivering the acquisition of new sites and the full acquisition lifecycle. Including identifying sites, negotiation & acquisition, planning, managing third party relationships, due diligence, contract negotiation and handover. You will also oversee expansion and improvement projects in the existing portfolio.

To be considered for this exceptional opportunity, you will have a proven background in the acquisition and development of sites from end to end. You will need to be an excellent communicator as regular board liaison is key. Ideally you will be an MRICS surveyor.

In return, you will receive an excellent rewards package, including flexible working and vast opportunities for development and progression.
