

Entry- Level Property Manager – Residential
Daventry
£18,000 – £22,000 (Includes 1 Saturday per month)

One of the leading property firms in the Midlands region is seeking a property manager for its Daventry operation. The organisation is well established and is managing a wide variety of residential property for its clients. The business is growing and outperforming its rivals in a competitive market and as such is looking to recruit a highly motivated and personable property manager.

The role itself will be responsible for looking after all aspects of property management for residential properties, including managing important relationships with tenants and landlords, negotiation of contracts and deposits, viewings, preparation of tenancy agreements, some valuation work, and ensuring gas & electrical safety checks are up to date.

This is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious individual to join an organisation that heavily invests in training and development. You will be supported by some of the leading individuals within the Midlands market place to thrive in your new opportunity. It's important that you have a genuine interest in property and property management, some experience in a property related discipline would be preferred.
