

Associate Director - Rural Surveying
Banbury
£Competitive + Car Allowance, Bonus & Package

Joshua Robert are proud to be working with a market leading Surveying firm with offices across the UK in the recruitment of an Associate Director for the businesses rural team in Banbury.

The business is a true market leader and offer unparalleled career progression and benefits to their employees, this post will see you take charge of a range of private and institutional clients who have a varied portfolio of work.

Your role as an Associate Director will be to carry out rural professional duties including:

Property and estate management
Landlord and tenant
Sales and purchases
Valuation
Planning and development
Compulsory purchase
Compensation
Strategic advice
Project management
Team leadership

To be successful in the role of Associate Director you will have the following skills / experience:

MRICS Surveyor
RICS Registered Valuer (Preferable)
Excellent communicator and motivator of staff
Skilled negotiator
Keen eye for detail

In return you will receive a competitive basic salary + bonus and package, including benefits such as flexible working, incremental holiday increases, generous car allowance, CPD, paid memberships and more.

The business has a structured path of progression from day one, giving you the ability to shape your own career within a meritocratic business who promote an autonomous working culture.

For more information, please contact James Willis

0121 582 0877
James.willis@joshuarobert.co.uk