

Investment Manager (Property)
West Midlands / Travel
£40,000 - £60,000 + car + Benefits

A significant UK PLC organisation with a large property portfolio are currently seeking to recruit an Investment Manager to oversee a large investment portfolio based across the UK. The organisation is undergoing a significant period of growth and change and as such is looking to add a motivated individual in to its established and impressive property team.

The role will be varied and working across a wide variety of property. You will negotiate at board level whilst identifying and appraising new investment opportunities. You will develop the business and contribute towards the delivery of the budget. Primarily you will identify and acquire investments, portfolios and sale and leasebacks, whilst managing the whole process.

It is important you are conversant in the due diligence process, building relationships and looking for business development opportunities. You will need to be RICS qualified and ideally with a background in property / estates management, investment or acquisition.

In return you will work for an outstanding growing organisation, offering a lot of autonomy and space for personal growth and development. The organisation offers an excellent rewards package.
