

Head of Property
Worcester
c£50,000 + Car + Bonus

An established, UK wide property company with a significant portfolio of assets across a variety of sectors, including office, industrial and retail. The organisation is growing and is looking for an experienced property management surveyor to lead its commercial offering mostly across the Midlands region.

The role will be to lead the commercial property management team focused on identifying and exploiting any new opportunities to grow the commercial business. You will support the business where for example, integrated (mixed use or FM etc) management opportunities are identified. Additionally, you'll take the lead on providing property management advise, rent reviews / lease renewals and identifying asset management / development opportunities.

The requirement is for an organized and outgoing individual who will be able to carry out tasks through to a successful conclusion. The successful candidate will be organized, efficient and able to work quickly and accurately under pressure. Although Head of Commercial, the emphasis will always be being part of a team. It's important that you are a motivated MRICS surveyor.

In return, you will work for an outstanding employer offering a competitive package as well as the opportunity to work flexibly and with clear opportunities to progress your career.
